3. No new brick-field shall be established within a distance of 50 yards from the outer boundary of any public road or half a mile from any inhabited area but the existing brick-fields shall, subject to the payment of license fee and compliance with the sanitary provisions of these by-laws, continue during the currency of their present lease. Such lease shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Chairman of the municipality by producing the registered instrument mentioning the period of lease.

In the absence of either of the two, the Circle Assistant Director of Public Health shall be consulted, and the license shall not be issued if the establishment or continuation of the brick-field is considered to be dangerous from the point of view of public health. If there be any difference of opinion between the Municipal Health Officer or Sanitary Inspector and the Commissioners, the matter shall be referred to the Assistant Director of Public Health of the circle concerned, whose opinion on the matter shall be final and binding.

(b) pure and wholesome water-supply for drinking and other domestic purposes of such labourers; and

(c) sufficient and suitable latrines and urinals for the labourers.

11. Every application for a license under these by-laws shall contain full particulars of the situation and boundary of the land to be used as brick-field for which the license is required together with a site plan, in duplicate, of the land. On receipt of the license, the licensee shall demarcate the boundary at the site to the satisfaction of the Chairman of the municipality before actually starting work.

12. Any person who commits a breach or abets the commission of a breach of any of these by-laws shall on conviction by a Magistrate be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and in the case of continuing breach with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which the breach is continued after the offender has been convicted of such breach, and if a licensee is so convicted his license may be cancelled.

No. 621H.—30th December 1944.—The following is republished for general information:—

OFFICE OF THE PRIVATE SECRETARY TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY.

New Delhi, the 19th December 1944.

No. 254H.—His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor of India has been graciously pleased to award the King's Police and Fire Services Medal to the following Officer:—

BENGAL.

Name of officer and rank.—Satyendra Prasad Bhowmik, Constable No. 109, Dinajpur District.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the evening of the 10th of August 1944, three men reported at Chirirbandar Police Station, District Dinajpur, that they had been held up and robbed by an upcountry man at the point of a revolver. Constable Satyendra Prasad Bhowmik and another were deputed to arrest him the man being known to be not far off. Joined by members of the public the constables ran towards the place where he was last seen. The robber fired at the advancing pursuers and disappeared in the jungle. Constable Satyendra Prasad Bhowmik undaunted entered the jungle alone in pursuit. He caught up with the robber who turned round and fired his revolver point blank at him, hitting the constable square in the chest. Undismayed, Satyendra leapt upon him and grappled with him, both falling to the ground. In the ensuing struggle the robber emptied his revolver, hitting the constable three times in the right arm, but Satyendra held on until others came up and disarmed and arrested the man. The assailant turned out to be a Punjabi Naik, who had deserted from his unit and was being escorted to headquarters. He had stolen the revolver from and eluded the military escort and had been robbing passersby to raise money for his fare home.

Constable Satyendra Prasad Bhowmik who was unarmed displayed great gallantry and devotion to duty in this affair.

This award is made for gallantry under regulation 6(a) of the Regulations governing the grant of the King's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

PART VI—Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

Legislative Department.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 7L.—8th January, 1945.—In continuation of notification No. 1118L., dated the 7th December 1944, published in Part VI of the Calcutta Gazette of the 14th December 1944, the following Notes on clauses on the Banking Companies Bill are hereby published for general information:—

The Banking Companies Bill.

(Published in the "Gazette of India," Part V, dated the 18th November 1944, and in the "Calcutta Gazette," dated the 14th December 1944.)

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 1(1).—The Bill is confined to companies carrying on the business of banking. It would be impracticable to include within its scope all institutions and individuals dealing in credit in view of the complex credit structure of the country and the fact that moneylending is an item of provincial legislation.

Clause 2.—Except in matters pertaining to banking it is desirable that the Indian Companies Act should continue to be applicable to banking companies.

Clause 3.—It is unnecessary to include co-operative banks, which are governed by special legislation.

Clause 4.—The object underlying this clause is that in cases of genuine emergency, e.g., a general run on all banks or a run on some banks in a particular area, Government should have power to suspend the operation of the Act after considering the recommendations of the Reserve Bank. The suspension of clause 18 will, for instance, enable the Reserve Bank to give an advance to tide over a banking crisis against liquid assets maintained by banks under that clause.

Clause 5(b).—The present definition of banking in section 277F of the Indian Companies Act gives rise to administrative difficulties, particularly in respect of the words "principal business" in determining whether a company comes within its scope. The new definition is intended to connect banking definitely with the acceptance of demand deposits and to confine the scope of the legislation to those institutions in which funds are deposited primarily to ensure their safety and ready withdrawability. It has the further advantage that it automatically excludes non-banking companies which accept only time deposits or borrow money at call.

Clause 6.—Based on sections 277F and 277G(2) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913.

Clause 7.—Sub-clause (1) is considered necessary for the protection of the interests of the depositors while sub-clause (2) merely follows the existing proviso to section 277F of the Indian Companies Act, 1913.

Clause 8.—This is intended to prohibit a bank from engaging directly or indirectly in trading activities and undertaking trading risks in addition to ordinary banking risks. Certain banks have been found to engage in such activities under the guise of agency business.

Clause 9.—It is not intended to prohibit a bank from conducting the management of industrial concerns which it may have acquired in satisfaction of its claims or from taking any other steps necessary in the interests of the bank. The period prescribed should be sufficient for the disposal of such non-banking assets.

Clause 10.—This embodies the new section 277HH added to the Indian Companies Act, 1913, by the Indian Companies (Amendment) Act, 1944, supplemented by a provision disallowing the employment of managing agents under some other name, or on a salary disproportionate to the resources of the bank.

Clause 11.—One of the chief defects of the Indian banking system is the weak and vulnerable capital structure of the vast majority of banks, as evidenced by the fact that during the years 1934-43, no less than 669 banking companies were liquidated or wound up, most of which possessed very poor capital resources. Even the minimum of Rs. 50,000 prescribed by the Indian Companies Act for banks incorporated after the 15th January 1937, is low as compared with many other countries, notwithstanding the lower standard of wealth in India. Another defect in the present banking system is the undue concentration of banking offices in a few cities and towns whereas a very large number of small towns have no banking facilities. Small banks with low capital have also a tendency to open branches in larger towns which have already sufficient banking facilities. Clause 11(1) seeks to remedy these defects.

In the case of banking companies incorporated outside British India, the provisions as regards capital do not afford any real protection; hence the safeguarding provisions of sub-clause (2).

Sub-clause (3) follows the recently enacted section 277I(2) of the Indian Companies Act.

Clause 12.—This reproduces section 277J of the Indian Companies Act.

Clause 13.—This embodies sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 277K of the Indian Companies Act. Sub-section (3) of that section has been omitted in view of clause 18 of the Bill which provides for a general reserve.

Clause 14.—This follows section 277L(1) of the Indian Companies Act except that the prescribed returns are to be filled with the Reserve Bank and not the Registrar.

Sub-section (2) of section 277L, which defines the terms "demand liabilities" and "time liabilities", has been removed to clause 5 of the Bill.

Clause 15.—The clause is more or less identical with section 277M of the Indian Companies Act. The words "issued and subscribed share capital" however have been substituted for the words "issued share capital" as the latter term is somewhat confusing and is used indiscriminately.

Clause 16.—Past failures of several banks in India have been due mostly to indiscriminate advances to directors or their concerns. An absolute and unqualified ban on such transactions would, however, result in depriving the banks of the advantage of having on their directorate important and experienced industrial magnates. A check is therefore prescribed on advances to directors and their concerns.

Clause 17.—When the Reserve Bank's original "Proposals for an Indian Bank Act" were circulated by Government in 1940, suggestions were received that a system of licensing foreign banks doing business in British India should be introduced. The Banking Enquiry Committee had also recommended that banks should be required to take out licenses from the Reserve Bank, such licenses being granted freely to the existing banks. Clause 17 provides for the licensing of foreign banks intending to open branches in India on the basis of reciprocal treatment of Indian nationals and companies in the foreign countries concerned.

Clause 18.—This clause is an attempt to prescribe by law what has already been recognised as sound banking practice, viz., that a bank should keep a reserve of cash and liquid assets to meet its demand liabilities. One of the worst defects of Indian banking is the propensity of the smaller banks to overtrade at the expense of liquidity and it seems best to insist on all banks maintaining a reasonably large proportion of their cover in the form of cash or trustee securities as defined in the Indian Trusts Act, excluding immovable property. The proportion of 25 per cent. is in accordance with the actual practice followed by smaller banks.

Clause 19.—The failure of a bank incorporated in an Indian State, which had the bulk of its deposits from British India but the greater part of its assets in Indian States, has brought out the necessity of protecting the interests of British Indian depositors by requiring such banks to maintain a reasonable proportion of their British Indian liability in the form of assets in British India. Export bills are included in such assets with a view to helping Indian exports.

Clause 20.—The existing return under section 42 of the Reserve Bank Act applies only to scheduled banks and also omits important details like investments. For an adequate control of banking development, it is necessary that the Reserve Bank should have a full picture of the banking situation of the country through periodical returns of assets and liabilities.

Clause 21.—The intention in prescribing an annual return of deposits which remain unclaimed for 10 years is to enable the Reserve Bank to have the necessary data for consideration of the question whether deposits remaining unclaimed for a prescribed period should be transferred to Government, making it responsible for meeting any claim which may be established in future. Similar returns are called for, in the banking legislation of Canada, and it is provided there that after the lapse of a certain period of years the deposits will be paid over to Government.

Clause 22.—The form F laid down by the Companies Act is meant for companies in general and is not suited to the special requirements of banking companies. Many of the smaller banks publish their balance-sheets in different forms and there is no uniformity of presentation. The banks also close their books on different dates making it difficult to have a picture of the banking situation of the country as on a particular date. The Central Banking Inquiry Committee, which considered this question in detail, recommended a separate form for banking companies. As regards banks incorporated outside British India, there is no provision in the Companies Act for the publication of separate balance-sheets of their Indian business. In Forms A and B of the Schedule to the Banking Companies Bill, an attempt has been made to provide a form of balance-sheet and profit and loss account specially suitable for banking companies.

Clause 23.—This provides for the audit of the statements prescribed under clause 22.

Clause 24.—At present, some of the banks publish their balance-sheets after a considerable period from the date to which they relate so that the position of the banks remain unknown for an unduly long period. The clause remedies this defect.

Clause 25.—This follows section 17 of the Insurance Act, 1938.

Clause 26.—There is no provision in the Indian Companies Act for the publication of balance-sheets by banking companies incorporated outside British India similar to that contained in section 136 applicable to companies incorporated in British India. This clause provides for uniformity of treatment as regards the publication of balance-sheets.

Clause 27.—This provides for the period of transition and follows section 17A of the Insurance Act, 1938.

Clause 28.—The opinions received on the Reserve Bank's "Proposals for an Indian Bank Act" circulated in 1940 revealed that public opinion was generally in favour of the inspection of banks by Government or the Reserve Bank. In view of this and in the light of the experience gained by the Reserve Bank in connection with the inspection of banks for the purposes of section 42(6) of the Reserve Bank Act, and in view of possible post-war developments, provisions have been made for the inspection, in certain circumstances, of a bank's books by the Reserve Bank at the instance of the Central Government. A regular system of inspection of all banks does not seem practicable and provision has therefore been made for inspection only where necessary in the interests of depositors. Sub-clause (1) generally follows the lines of section 33(1) of the Insurance Act, and sub-clauses (2) and (3) enumerate the various corrective measures which the Central Government may take.

Clause 30.—This clause is a modification of section 277N of the Indian Companies Act, the period of moratorium having been limited to three months. It is the intention that the report under sub-clause (2) should be submitted by the Reserve Bank.

Clause 31.—The provisions of the Indian Companies Act in respect of liquidation do not seem to be suitable for banking companies. A bank's business is conducted on an over-the-counter basis and it is important that current accounts should be withdrawable at any time and drafts, etc., should be honoured on presentation; otherwise great business dislocation is likely to result. A provision has, therefore, been made under this clause for the winding up of a banking company if it refuses to meet a lawful demand for payment at one of its offices or branches within two working days, if such demand is made at a place where there is an office or branch or agency of the Reserve Bank, or within four working days, elsewhere. The clause also authorises the Reserve Bank to apply for the liquidation of a banking company if it appears from the results of an inspection made under clause 28 that its affairs are being conducted to the detriment of the interests of its depositors.

Clause 32.—Experience has shown that the cost of liquidation proceedings under the Indian Companies Act is high. It has, therefore, been provided in this clause that the Reserve Bank should be empowered to carry out liquidations, so that unnecessary expense and delay in liquidation proceedings may be avoided, and that the assets may be realised as speedily and cheaply as possibl in the interests of the creditors.

Clause 33.—This limits the power of the Cour to stay proceedings to cases in which it is satisfie that the depositors can be paid in full.

Clause 34.—The period prescribed under sectio 177B of the Indian Companies Act for the submission of a preliminary report by the officia liquidator is too long in the case of a banking company and the clause is intended to remedy this defect.

Clause 35.—In the case of a banking company, rapidity in liquidation is essential if the assets are not to grow cold or to be dissipated. The provisions for calling meetings of creditors to discuss arrangements or to appoint an advisory committee to work with the official liquidator should, therefore, be rescinded in the case of banking companies unless the Court considers that this should be done.

Clause 36.—This simplifies the formalities for depositors proving their debts.

Clause 37.—It has been found that banking companies in a shaky condition take advantage of the voluntary winding up proceedings under the cover of a merger, or manipulate such proceedings to the disadvantage of the depositors who are a scattered body and are unlikely to take concerted action. The clause is intended to prevent such abuses.

Clause 38.—This empowers the Central Government to make regulations under the Act after consultation with the Reserve Bank.

Clause 39.—This is a consequential amendment.

Clause 40.—Repeals.

PART I—Orders and Notifications by the Governor of Bengal, the High Court, Government Treasury, etc.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

PUBLIC HEALTH AND LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 187M.—20th January 1945.—Whereas the Governor is satisfied that the city of Calcutta is threatened with an outbreak of small-pox:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897 (Act III of 1897), the Governor is pleased to prescribe the following temporary regulations for the prevention and control of small-pox, and for the medical inspection, isolation, observation and surveillance of persons suffering from, or suspected of being infected with, small-pox in the said city:—

Temporary Regulations for the Prevention and Control of Small-Pox.

1. In these regulations, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "District Health Officer" means the Health Officer of a district within the city of Calcutta, appointed by the Calcutta Corporation;

(b) "Corporation" means Calcutta Corporation constituted under Calcutta Municipal Act;

(c) "Small-pox" means any disease accompanied by an eruption of vesicles or pustules;

(d) "Patient" means a person suffering from or suspected to be suffering from small-pox;

(e) "Medical practitioner" means any person practising the medical profession.

Notices.

2. If in any case the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him considers that the issue of a notice under regulation 20 is likely to lead to such an amount of delay as might facilitate the spread of small-pox, he may forthwith take such steps as he may think fit for carrying out the work, and shall thereafter, as soon as possible, issue a notice on the person concerned stating the reasons why such work has been carried out.

3. If any measure which the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, has, by a notice issued under regulation 20, required to be carried out, be not carried out to his satisfaction within the time stated in the notice the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, shall be entitled to carry out the measure.

Cost and compensation.

4. (1) All expenses incurred in carrying out any work in pursuance of an order issued under these regulations shall be paid by the Corporation except in any case where the order directs a person to carry out any work in relation to property in his possession, in which case the expenses shall be paid by such person:

Provided that where the conditions which led the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, to pass such an order, are not attributable to any act or default of the person in possession of the property, the Corporation may pay to such person the whole or a part of the expenses incurred by him in carrying out the order.

(2) The Corporation may recover all expenses incurred by the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, in carrying out the measure under regulation 3 from the person or persons to whom the notice was originally issued.

Location of disease.

5. When a case of small-pox occurs in a house, the nearest male relative in attendance upon the patient, or in the absence of any such relative the occupier of the house or if the occupier be the patient, the senior male inmate of the house other than the patient of the house shall, within twenty-four hours of the onset of the disease, give information regarding the occurrence of such case either personally or in writing to the nearest District Health Officer.

6. (1) Every medical practitioner called in to attend upon any case of small-pox shall forthwith give notice of the case by a special messenger to the nearest District Health Officer.

(2) The doctor-in-charge of a hospital or a dispensary within the district shall forthwith give notice of any case of small-pox brought to such hospital or dispensary for treatment to the nearest District Health Officer.

7. The Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, may examine any person who is or suspected to be suffering from small-pox or who, in his opinion, may be infected with or likely to spread small-pox.

Isolation of patients.

8. When the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, considers that the isolation of any patient is a precaution necessary for the protection of the neighbouring population, he shall order the patient to observe isolation and may order the nearest relative in attendance on the patient, or the occupier of the house in which the patient is staying, to arrange for the isolation of the patient in such a manner and for such a time as may be approved by the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or the person authorised by him.

He shall not direct the patient to be removed from the house unless it is in his opinion impossible to make proper arrangements for his isolation therein.

9. The Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, may order that any person, who has been in contact with a person found to be suffering from small-pox shall be segregated for a period not exceeding a fortnight in a manner and in a place to be approved by the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him.

10. The Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, may order that any person who has been in contact with a person found to be suffering from small-pox shall be vaccinated or re-vaccinated within a time to be specified in the order.

11. No person shall enter any place wherein a patient is isolated under regulation 8 without the permission of the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him.

12. When a patient has been removed from a house for isolation under regulation 8, the Corporation shall provide for him free of charge a suitable place, with necessary attendants, diet, etc.

13. No person, who is or has been suffering from small-pox, shall leave the place where he has been staying until he has received from the Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him, written permission to do so.

14. No person while suffering from evident symptoms of small-pox or in the convalescent state of the disease with scabs of small-pox on his body shall expose himself in any street, road, public place, shop, bazar or any place used in common by persons other than members of the family or household to which such infected persons belong or shall move from place to place unless he is proceeding to a hospital for admission and treatment.

(ii) that he is taken to the hospital direct and the conveyance does not halt at any other place for transacting any business; and

(iii) that excepting one or two attendants for the patient no other person is carried in the conveyance at the same time.

17B. Every conveyance in which a patient or a dead body of a person who has died of small-pox or any article that has been in contact with a patient is carried shall be disinfected before it is used again. The disinfection will be effected—

(i) in the case of a conveyance carrying a patient to hospital, by the authorities of the hospital before such conveyance leaves the hospital;

(ii) the article is taken to the disinfecting station direct and the conveyance does not halt at any other place for transacting any business; and

(iii) excepting one attendant for the purpose of taking the infected article to the disinfecting station no other person is carried in the conveyance.

23. (1) The Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him may require any person who appears to be acquainted with facts in connection with any case or suspected case of small-pox to attend before him at a time to be stated in the order. (3) Such person shall be bound to answer all questions relating to such case put to him or her by such officer, other than questions the answers to which would have a tendency to expose him or her to any criminal charge.

25. The Director of Public Health, Bengal, or any person authorised by him may, with such assistants (if any) as he thinks fit, enter upon any land, or after two hours' notice in writing, into any premises or building used for human habitation at any time between sunrise and sunset for the purpose of carrying out any measure or making any enquiries authorised by these regulations.

PART IVB—Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council; and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

Legislative Department.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 79L.—20th January 1945.—The Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 48 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information.

THE CRIMINAL PROCEDURE (BENGAL AMENDMENT) BILL, 1945.

A BILL

to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in its application to Bengal, in the manner hereinafter appearing; Act V of 1898.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Criminal Procedure (Bengal Amendment) Act, 1945.

Application.

2. The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, in its application to Bengal, be amended in the manner hereinafter provided.

Insertion of new section 128A in Act V of 1898.

3. After section 128 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"Assembly to disperse on command of certain other police-officers.

128A. The powers conferred on an officer in charge of a police-station by section 127 or section 128 may also be exercised by any police-officer not below the rank of assistant sub-inspector of police who is present:

Provided that if authorised by general or special order in this behalf by the District Magistrate, and within such area or areas in the district as may be specified in the said order, head constables may, if no police-officer of higher rank is present, also exercise the said powers."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under section 127 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), any Magistrate or officer in charge of a police-station may command an unlawful assembly to disperse. An "officer in charge of a police-station" as defined in section 4(l)(p) of the said Code includes, when the officer in charge of the police-station is absent from the station-house or unable from illness or other cause to perform his duties, the police-officer present at the station-house who is next in rank to such officer and is above the rank of constable or, when the Provincial Government so directs, any other police-officer so present. As there are police-stations in this Province in which there is no other sub-inspector of police except the officer in charge, practical difficulties are experienced when there arises any occasion to depute officers other than the officer in charge of the police-station to deal with unlawful assemblies under section 127 or section 128 of the said Code.

This short Bill is accordingly being introduced in order that the power conferred on an officer in charge of a police-station by section 127 or section 128 may be exercised also by any police-officer not below the rank of assistant sub-inspector of police who is present, and also by a head constable if no police-officer of higher rank is present and if the head constable is so authorised by the District Magistrate.

K. NAZIMUDDIN,
Member-in-charge.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect any order made by the Bank under this Act, or any order made by a Court upon the Bank.

4. 7. Persons whose title to a Government security of a deceased sole holder may be recognised by the Bank.—Subject to the provisions of section 9 the executors or administrators of a deceased sole holder of a Government security and the holder of a succession certificate issued under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (XXXIX of 1925), shall be the only persons who may be recognised by the Bank as having any title to the Government security:

Provided that nothing in this section shall bar the recognition by the Bank of the manager or the sole surviving male member of a Hindu undivided family governed by the Mitakshara Law as having a title to a Government security, when the security appears to the Bank to stand in the name of a deceased member of the family and an application is made by such manager or sole surviving member for recognition of his title and is supported by a certificate signed by such authority and after such inquiry as may be prescribed to the effect that the deceased belonged to a Hindu undivided family governed by the Mitakshara Law, that the Government security formed part of the joint property of the family, and that the applicant is the managing or sole surviving male member of the family.

Cancellation by the Bank of vesting proceedings.—Where the Bank contemplates making an order under this Act vesting a Government security in any person the Bank may, at any time before the order is made, cancel any proceedings already taken for that purpose and may, on such cancellation, proceed anew to the making of such order.

22. Discharge in respect of interest on Government securities.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in the terms of a Government security, no person shall be entitled to claim interest on such security in respect of any period which has elapsed after the earliest date on which demand could have been made for the payment of the amount due on such security.

23. Discharge in respect of bearer bonds.—The Central Government shall be discharged from all liability on a bearer bond or on any interest coupon of such a bond on payment to the holder of such bond or coupon on presentation on or after the date when it becomes due of the amount expressed therein, unless before such payment an order of a Court in British India has been served on the Central Government restraining it from making payment.

24. Period of limitation of Central Government's liability in respect of interest.—Where no shorter period of limitation is fixed by any law for the time being in force, the liability of the Central Government in respect of any interest payment due on a Government security shall terminate on the expiry of six years from the date on which the amount due by way of interest became payable.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

Resolution reviewing the reports of Commissioners of Divisions on the working of union boards in Bengal during the year 1941-42.

RESOLUTION—No. 91L.S.-G.

Calcutta, the 17th January 1945.

READ—

The reports of the Commissioners of Divisions on the working of the union boards in Bengal during 1941-42.

During the year under review the total number of union boards in the Province was 5,140. One new union board was established in the district of Midnapore during this year. The Patenga union board in the district of Chittagong, however, did not function during a part of the year as the whole of the union was evacuated.

The total area covered by the union boards was 58,049 square miles against 58,500 square miles of the previous year and the total population thereof was 46,363,696 against 42,266,131 of the preceding year.

2. Franchise.—The gradual increase in the number of voters of union boards was maintained the number for the year under review being 5,624,037 against 5,587,326 of the previous year. The total number of members of union boards was 46,109 of which 25,974 were Muslims, 19,604 were Hindus and 531 belonged to other communities.

3. Finance.—The income of the union boards, including the opening balance, amounted to Rs. 113·31 lakhs against Rs. 114·68 lakhs in the preceding year. The receipts from the union rates, however, showed an increase from Rs. 79·69 lakhs to Rs. 80·67 lakhs. Of this latter sum, Rs. 63·25 lakhs represented the chaukidari rate under section 37(a) of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act and Rs. 17·42 lakhs represented the rate under section 37(b) of the said Act as against Rs. 62·47 lakhs and Rs. 17·22 lakhs, respectively, in the preceding year. The contributions from Government and the district boards fell from Rs. 1,53,000 to Rs. 85,924 and from Rs. 4·85 lakhs to Rs. 3·75 lakhs, respectively.

The total expenditure of union boards decreased from Rs. 99·69 lakhs to Rs. 97·56 lakhs, of which a sum of Rs. 51·46 lakhs or about 52·7 per cent. of the total expenditure was on the salaries and equipment of the chaukidars and dafadars. The union boards spent during the year under review a sum of Rs. 7·88 lakhs on the construction and maintenance of village roads, of which Rs. 2·62 lakhs represented expenditure on original works; a sum of Rs. 6 lakhs on water-supply of which Rs. 4·36 lakhs represented expenditure on original works; a sum of Rs. 2·35 lakhs on drainage, conservancy and other sanitary measures, Rs. 2·86 lakhs on primary education and Rs. 3·98 lakhs on medical relief.

4. Union Benches.—Union Benches have been established under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act of 1919 in all districts of Bengal except Darjeeling. The total number of Benches established and in existence was 1,801 against 1,659 in the previous year. The number of offences reported to these Benches was 82,723 showing a decrease of 2,686 on that of 1941. The working of the union benches continued to be satisfactory on the whole. They afforded appreciable relief to the ordinary courts by disposing of a fair number of petty cases during the year. These village tribunals are growing in popularity as they administer speedy justice locally at a very low cost and without any elaborate legal procedure.

Union courts.—Union courts have been established under the Bengal Village Self-Government Act of 1919, in all the districts in Bengal except Darjeeling. The total number of courts established was 1,650 against 1,629 in the previous year. The number of suits instituted in these courts was 49,541 showing a decrease of 2,132 over that of 1941. Of the total number of applications for disposal during the year under report under the proviso to section 88 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 96 cases were either dismissed or not prosecuted. In 165 cases the lower courts' orders were confirmed, in 29 modified, in 68 reversed and 22 cases were remanded for retrial. The union courts are reported, generally, to be popular and useful to poor litigants as speedy redress is available locally at a very low cost and to be affording some relief to the Munsifs. Some district Judges are of opinion that the utility of these courts would increase if a better personnel could be ensured and that further improvements and stricter supervision over the courts are required in order to free them from the suspicion of corruption and malpractices as far as possible. It is reported from some districts that the introduction of the Debt Settlement Boards has affected the work of these courts to some extent.

5. Relations between local officers and union boards and between district boards and union boards.—The relation between the Circle Officers and the Presidents as well as between the district boards and union boards continued to be cordial. There was co-operation between the Presidents and the Police in the prevention and detection of crimes and in organising Village Defence Parties. Co-operative conferences were held regularly.

6. General Remarks.—The working of union boards during the year under report was on the whole satisfactory. Most of them continued to do good works of public utility such as improvement of village roads, water-supply and establishment of dispensaries. Many engaged themselves in the furtherance of the war effort. Some were very helpful in carrying out the rural reconstruction policy of Government and some did valuable work for the improvement of village sanitation with the limited resources at their disposal in spite of the inevitable tendency, in too many cases, to indulge in party faction.

By order of the Governor,
E. W. HOLLAND,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Amendments.

1. For clause (a) of the "Proviso" to sub-rule (1) of rule 13 of the said rules substitute the following:—

Should the qualified elector nominate three candidates, at least one of them shall be either a teacher or a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta, or who combines both these special qualifications in himself. Should he nominate not more than two candidates, the nominee or nominees need not necessarily be a teacher or a registered practitioner practising outside Calcutta.

Should such number be equal to the number of such remaining seats, the Returning Officer shall similarly and without calling for a poll, declare these candidates as duly elected, if at least one of them, or one of the sitting members (if any) whose seat is not comprised in the election, or the member elected for the purposes of the proviso to section 4, be a teacher.

PART V—Acts of the Indian Legislature assented to by the Governor-General and Ordinances promulgated by the Governor-General.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Department.

ORDINANCE No. XLII OF 1944.

to make certain provision in respect of Post-Office Twelve-Year National Savings Certificates and other classes of Savings Certificates.

WHEREAS an emergency has arisen which renders it necessary to make certain provision in respect of Post-Office Twelve-Year National Savings Certificates and other classes of Savings Certificates;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 72 of the Government of India Act, as set out in the Ninth Schedule to the Government of India Act, 1935 (26 Geo. 5, c. 2), the Governor General is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title, application and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Post-Office National Savings Certificates Ordinance, 1944.

(2) It applies to—

(a) Post-Office Twelve-Year National Savings Certificates issued in pursuance of the Notification of the Government of India in the Finance Department, No. F. 17 (100)-F/43, dated the 4th September, 1943, and

(b) any other classes of savings certificates to which the Central Government may from time to time by notification in the official Gazette direct that the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Interpretation.—In this Ordinance—

(a) "minor" means a person who is not deemed to have attained his majority under the Indian Majority Act, 1875 (IX of 1875);

(b) "savings certificate" includes a Post-Office Twelve-Year National Savings Certificate referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 1 and a savings certificate of any other class to which the provisions of this Ordinance have been applied by a direction in pursuance of clause (b) of that sub-section;

(c) "transfer" means a transfer inter vivos and does not include a transfer by operation of law.

3. Restriction of transfer.—Notwithstanding any provision in any enactment or any rule of law for the time being in force to the contrary, no transfer, whether made before or after the commencement of this Ordinance or, as the case may be, before or after the making of a direction in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 1, of a savings certificate shall be valid without the previous consent in writing of an officer of the Post Office authorised by general or special order of the Central Government in that behalf.

4. Payment on death of holder of savings certificate.—(1) If a person dies and is at the time of his death the holder of a savings certificate, payment of the sum for the time being due thereon may be made in the manner provided in the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873 (V of 1873), for the payment of deposits belonging to the estates of deceased persons, and the provisions of sections 4 to 9 of the said Act shall apply accordingly as if the holder of the savings certificate were a depositor in a Government Savings Bank and the sum for the time being due on the certificate were a deposit in such a Bank:

Provided that in such application section 8 of the said Act shall be construed as if the reference therein to three thousand rupees were a reference to the amount of the maximum holding of savings certificates prescribed in the rules made or deemed to have been made under this Ordinance applicable to the particular savings certificate:

Provided further that—

(a) the powers conferred by the said provisions on the Secretary of a Government Savings Bank shall be exercisable by the Postmaster-General for the area within which the post office of issue of such savings certificate is situate;

(b) where in any one case payment is to be made of savings certificates issued from more post offices than one, the said powers shall be exercisable by the Postmaster-General for the area in which any of the said post offices is situate.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to require any person to accept payment of the amount due on a savings certificate before it has reached maturity.

5. Holdings by or on behalf of minors.—Notwithstanding any provision in any enactment or any rule of law for the time being in force to the contrary,—

(1) a minor may apply for and hold savings certificates and any person may apply for and hold savings certificates on behalf of a minor;

(2) where any certificate is held by or on behalf of a minor, the minor shall, whether the certificate was applied for and issued before or after the commencement of this Ordinance or, as the case may be, before or after the making of a direction in respect of such certificate in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 1, be bound by the provisions of this Ordinance and of any rules made or deemed to have been made thereunder applicable to such savings certificate and by the terms of any declaration made by the applicant for the certificate in pursuance of the said rules;

(3) payment of the sum for the time being due on a savings certificate held by or on behalf of a minor may be made—

(a) to him personally, if he himself applied for the certificate, or

(b) for the use of the minor, if the application for the certificate was made by any person other than the minor,—

(i) to any such person, being a parent of the minor or guardian of his property, as may be nominated in that behalf in the form of application, or

(ii) if no such nomination has been made, to any guardian of the property of the minor appointed by a competent Court, or where no such guardian has been so appointed, to either parent of the minor, or where neither parent is alive, to any other guardian of the minor,— and the receipt of the minor or, as the case may be, of his parent or guardian for any sum paid under this clause shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

6. Rules.—(1) The Central Government may by notification in the official Gazette make rules relating to any class of savings certificate.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for the application for, the issue, maximum limits of holding and discharge of, and conditions as to interest or discount relating to, any class of savings certificate, and may also provide—

(a) that where any such maximum limits of holdings are exceeded, no interest shall be payable on the amount of such excess;

(b) that if any interest has been paid on any amount of such excess, it shall be recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue or in such other manner as the rules may prescribe.

(3) All rules relating to—

(a) the Post-Office Twelve-Year National Savings Certificates in force at the commencement of this Ordinance,

(b) any other class of savings certificate in force at the time when a direction in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 1 is made in respect thereof—shall, so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, continue in force until they are duly rescinded or amended, and shall be deemed to have been made under this Ordinance.

PART IA—Orders and Notifications by the Government of India republished for general information.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

New Delhi, the 15th January 1945.

RESOLUTION.

No. F.209/41-C.&G.(Judl.).—The following Statement is published for general information:—

STATEMENT.

Two proposals for the enlargement of the jurisdiction of the Federal Court have been under the consideration of the Government of India and the Secretary of State for some considerable time.

2. The first proposal arises from the scheme adopted in sections 205 and 206 of the Constitution Act. Under section 205 an appeal lies to the Federal Court, and no direct appeal lies to His Majesty in Council, from a judgment, decree or final order of a High Court in British India if the High Court certifies that the case involves a substantial question of law as to the interpretation of the Act or any Order in Council made thereunder. Section 206 empowers the Federal Legislature and by virtue of section 316 the Indian Legislature of the transitional period—to provide by Act that in such civil cases as may be specified in the Act an appeal shall lie to the Federal Court without a certificate of the nature referred to in section 205, and by sub-section (2) further empowers the Federal or Indian Legislature to make consequential provision for the abolition of direct appeals in civil cases to His Majesty in Council either with or without special leave. The Orders in Council hitherto made under section 320 have been so framed as to exclude section 206 from coming into force along with the remainder of Chapter I of Part IX, and the section is still not in force.

3. The proposal which originally commended itself to the Government of India was that Parliamentary legislation should be promoted for the amendment of section 206 so as to eliminate sundry anomalies to which attention had been drawn and that on the enactment of this legislation the whole section should be brought into force by Order in Council under section 320 so as to empower the Indian Legislature to confer a right of appeal to the Federal Court from decisions of High Courts in civil cases and consequentially to abolish direct appeals from such decisions to the Privy Council either with or without special leave. After exhaustive consideration, however, the Secretary of State has reached the conclusion, in which the Government of India concur, that the Indian Legislature ought not at this stage to be placed in a position enabling it to abolish direct appeals with special leave to the Privy Council from High Courts in cases outside the scope of section 205, or, in other words, that any Indian legislation under section 206 providing for an appeal to the Federal Court should not deprive a party of the option of seeking special leave to appeal to the Privy Council. In view of this conclusion, the proposal now is that the Parliamentary legislation for the amendment of section 206 should itself provide for the coming into force of sub-sections (1) and (3) thereof to the exclusion of sub-section (2) and that no steps should for the present be taken to bring sub-section (2) into force. The effect would be to empower the Indian Legislature to vest the Federal Court with a civil appellate jurisdiction concurrent with that of the Privy Council and to leave the choice of the forum of appeal to the free option of the party to whom a right of appeal had accrued.

4. Reference has been made to the desirability of removing certain anomalies before section 206 is brought into force to the extent proposed. The principal point involved is that section 206 is expressed in terms of a "High Court" in British India, with the result that the power conferred upon the Indian Legislature by that section extends to the conferment of a right of appeal to the Federal Court from the decisions of such Courts only as are enumerated in section 219 to the exclusion of other Courts of final appellate jurisdiction in British India (e.g. the Courts of the Judicial Commissioners in Ajmer-Merwara, Coorg and British Baluchistan) which are High Courts within the meaning of Indian legislation and from whose decisions appeals lie to the Privy Council under section 109 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Section 205 is similarly expressed, with the even more anomalous result that while a direct appeal from a Constitution Act High Court in a "constitutional" case lies to the Federal Court, a direct appeal from a Court of final appellate jurisdiction which is not such High Court continues to lie to the Privy Council to the exclusion of the Federal Court. It is proposed, therefore, to amend both sections so as to extend the provision made for Constitution Act High Courts to other Courts of final appellate jurisdiction in British India. It is also proposed to make such further amendments in section 206 as will enable the Indian Legislature to equate in all respects the conditions under which appeals will lie to the Federal Court with the conditions under which appeals now lie to the Privy Council under section 109 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

5. Clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 206 imposes minimum and maximum limits of Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 50,000 respectively on the amount of value of the subject matter necessary to the creation of a right of appeal to the Federal Court without special leave. No change in this respect is proposed, and it is contemplated that any legislation enacted by the Indian Legislature in pursuance of section 206 would amend section 110 of the Code of Civil Procedure so as to substitute for the reference therein to Rs. 10,000 a reference to such higher sum—not being less than Rs. 15,000 or more than Rs. 50,000—as may be adopted as the minimum amount or value involving a right of appeal to the Federal Court without special leave. The actual figure to be adopted within these limits would rest with the Indian Legislature; but the figure which Government have in mind is Rs. 15,000. The substitution of a reference to the higher figure for the reference in section 110 of the Code of Civil Procedure to Rs. 10,000 would involve the abolition of the existing right of appeal to the Privy Council in cases in which the amount or value is not less than Rs. 10,000 but is less than the higher figure to be adopted, but the abolition pro tanto of existing appeals to the Privy Council by right of grant is of course within the powers of the Indian Legislature independently of sub-section (2) of section 206.

6. In the course of the discussions of the proposal under consideration attention has been drawn to the fact that the Federal Court has held judicially that a judgment of a single Judge of a High Court is a judgment in respect of which sub-section (1) of section 205 applies despite the fact that a so-called Letters Patent appeal lies to the High Court from such judgment. The Secretary of State and the Government of India entertain no doubt that this decision correctly interprets the existing law, but they are not convinced that the effect in this respect is desirable, and they feel that it would be more consonant with principle that appeals from a High Court to the Federal Court should be confined to cases in which all rights of appeal within the High Court itself have been exhausted. It is therefore proposed that the legislation in contemplation should include provision excluding the possibility of a direct appeal to the Federal Court from the judgment of a single Judge from which an appeal lies to a Bench of the High Court itself.

7. The second proposal contemplates the insertion in the Constitution Act of a section empowering the Central Legislature to provide for reference to and decision by the Federal Court of questions of law arising out of orders made by any appellate tribunal constituted under the law for the time being in force in British India relating to taxes on income, or, in other words to transfer to the Federal Court the jurisdiction now vested in High Courts by Section 66 of the Indian Income-tax Act. The decision of a High Court on such reference is now appealable to the Privy Council, and the section to be inserted in the Constitution Act would be so drawn as to render a decision of the Federal Court in exercise of this jurisdiction appealable to the Privy Council by leave either of the Federal Court or of the Privy Council itself. The proposal is inspired in the main by the desirability of securing uniformity in the judicial interpretation of income-tax law more easily than is possible under existing conditions which have not infrequently led to most embarrassing conflicts of judicial opinion.

8. It is realised that if the enactment of Parliamentary legislation in the sense indicated in this note were followed by legislation in the Indian Legislature in either or both of the directions involved, an increase of the present strength of the Federal Court would be required. No attempt has been made to estimate the precise extent of the necessary increase, but on the footing that the vesting of the Federal Court with jurisdiction in respect of income-tax references was not envisaged when six was fixed by sub-section (1) of section 200 as the limit to which the number of Puisne Judges can be increased without an address to His Majesty it is proposed that the contemplated Parliamentary legislation should include provision for increasing this limit to eight.

9. The Secretary of State has intimated that he will be prepared to promote Parliamentary legislation on the lines indicated in this statement if but not unless he is satisfied that the proposals would be acceptable to Indian opinion. Steps will therefore to taken to give the utmost possible publicity to this statement, and any comments on the proposals therein which are received by the 1st May, 1945, will receive careful consideration. Any person or association desiring to furnish comments on the proposals should forward the same direct to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Legislative Department. Any comments received will be supplied to the Members of the Central Legislature, and steps will be taken in due course to arrange a debate on the proposals in each Chamber of that Legislature.

PART IVA—Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Assembly; and Bills published before introduction in that Assembly

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 2341L.A.—5th February 1945.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 50 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Procedure Rules, the following Bill which was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 15th December 1944, is hereby published for general information together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto.

THE BENGAL HINDU WOMEN'S RIGHTS TO AGRICULTURAL LAND BILL, 1944.

(As introduced in the Assembly on December 15, 1944.)

A BILL

to amend the Hindu Law governing Hindu women's rights to agricultural land.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Hindu Law to give better rights to women in respect of agricultural land in Bengal;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Hindu Women's Rights to Agricultural Land Act, 1944.

(2) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(3) It shall have retrospective effect as if it had come into force on the 14th day of April, 1937.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(1) "agricultural land" includes the right to land products and income from land;

(2) "land" includes buildings thereon.

Application.

3. Notwithstanding any rule of Hindu Law or custom to the contrary, the provisions of section 4 shall apply where a Hindu dies intestate.

4. (1) Where a Hindu governed by the Dayabhag school of Hindu Law dies intestate leaving any agricultural land, and when a Hindu governed by any other school of Hindu Law or by customary law dies intestate leaving separate agricultural land, his widow or if there is more than one widow all his widows together, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be entitled in respect of agricultural land, in respect of which he dies intestate, to the same share as a son:

son, and shall inherit in like manner as a son's son if there is surviving a son or son's son of such predeceased son :

Provided further that the same provision shall apply mutatis mutandis to the widow of a predeceased son of a predeceased son.

(2) When a Hindu governed by any school of Hindu Law other than the Dayabhag school or by customary law dies having at the time of his death an interest in a Hindu joint family agricultural land, his widow shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), have in the agricultural land the same interest as he himself had.

(3) Any interest devolving on a Hindu widow under the provisions of this section shall be the limited interest known as a Hindu woman's estate, provided however that she shall have the same right of claiming partition as a male owner.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an estate which by a customary or other rule of succession or by the terms of the grant applicable thereto descends to a single heir or to any property to which the Indian Succession Act, 1925, applies.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be deemed to die intestate in respect of all agricultural lands of which he has not made a testamentary disposition which is capable of taking effect.

Act XXXIX of 1925.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It has been recently held by the Federal Court that legislation in respect of agricultural land being a provincial subject, the Hindu Women's Rights to Property Act, 1937, passed by the Indian Legislature, does not apply to agricultural land. As an effect of that decision Hindu women can no longer claim any right of inheritance to agricultural land as contemplated by the said Indian Act. Besides, a very serious situation has been created by the said decision of the Federal Court by rendering void all acts including transactions with third parties done by Hindu women in respect of agricultural land in exercise of their rights given to them by the said Indian Act and under bona fide belief that such rights had extended to agricultural land also. The objects of this Bill are to give like rights to Hindu women in respect of agricultural land as has been given them by the said Indian Act in respect of other properties and also to validate all acts done by them including transactions with third parties in respect of such land since the 14th day of April, 1937, on which date the said Indian Act came into force.

PART IVB—Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council; and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 134L.—8th February 1945.—The Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 48 of the Bengal Legislative Council Procedure Rules the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information.

THE BENGAL RENT RECOVERY (UNDER-TENURES) AMENDMENT BILL, 1945.

A BILL

to amend the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865 for the purpose and in the manner hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act VIII of 1865.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Amendment Act, 1945.

The Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Amendment Bill, 1945.

(Clauses 2, 3.)

Amendment of section 1 of Bengal Act VIII of 1865.

2. In section 1 of the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words "all officers exercising the full powers of a Collector of a district" the words "any officer vested with the powers of a Collector of a district" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 3.

3. In section 3 of the said Act,—

(a) after the words "the lands lie" the words "or by other officer duly authorised in this behalf by the Provincial Government" shall be inserted, and

(b) after the words "by the said Collector" the words "or other officer as aforesaid" shall be added.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the existing law the Collector of a district should hold Patni sales personally on every occasion and if he is rendered unable to do so under emergent circumstances the sales must be held up—a position which is extremely unsatisfactory. In order to get over this unsatisfactory position with regard to the holding of Patni sales, it is necessary to amend the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865 so as to empower any officer other than the Collector, whom the Provincial Government may by notification appoint to exercise the functions of a Collector under that Act.

TARAK NATH MUKERJEA,
Member-in-charge.

The 7th February 1945.

By order of the Governor,
G. M. RATCLIFF,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

An Act to amend the Government of India Act, 1935, in certain respects.

[26th October 1944.]

1. Extension of term of office of members of certain Provincial Legislative Councils.—(1) Where (whether before or after the passing of this Act) by any provisions of a Proclamation under section ninety-three of the Government of India Act, 1935 (26 Geo. 5 & 1 Edw. 8. c. 2.) (hereafter in this Act referred to as "the principal Act"), the retirement of any of the members of the Legislative Council of a Province is postponed, the term of office of all members of that Legislative Council who held office when those provisions came into force shall be treated as increased by the length of the period during which those provisions remain in force, together with such additional periods, if any, not exceeding twelve months, as the Governor in his discretion may by public notification direct for the purpose of securing that elections to that Council other than elections to fill casual vacancies, are held at a convenient time of year.

(2) Where the Governor gives such a direction as aforesaid, the direction may further provide that for such period not exceeding twelve months from the giving of the direction as may be specified therein, vacancies in all or any specified seats in the Council shall not be filled.

(3) If, on the coming into force (whether before or after the passing of this Act) of any such provisions of any such Proclamation as aforesaid, there is a vacancy in any of the seats of the Legislative Council in question, it shall not be filled while those provisions remain in force, and, if it is a casual vacancy, any person who, after those provisions have ceased to be in force, is chosen to fill it shall be chosen for a term of office increased to the extent specified in sub-section (1) of this section.

4. Leave of absence of Governor-General, etc.—(1) In sub-section (3) of section eighty-six of the Government of India Act, set out in the Ninth Schedule to the principal Act (which provides that leave of absence shall not, in pursuance of that section, be granted to the Governor-General, the Commander-in-Chief or any other member of the Governor-General's Executive Council for any period exceeding four months or more than once during his tenure of office), after the words "this section" there shall be inserted the words "for urgent reasons of health or of private affairs".
